Looking Back

Senior Class member Jessica Flowers kisses a trophy won by Chris Fuller in a Math Tournament. Maybe by kissing this "blarney stone" some of its magic will come her way.

Homecoming Queen Brandy Mehaffey and her parents, Roy and Tammy Mehaffey, stand at attention during the pregame show as the Star Spangled Banner and the Alma Mater are played.

Colorguard member Brittany Thompson (above) has a big simile that could be caused by the new uniform she is wearing. Anna Miller and Kim Rayburn (left) play with a new toy during morning break. Whittney Stephens watches.

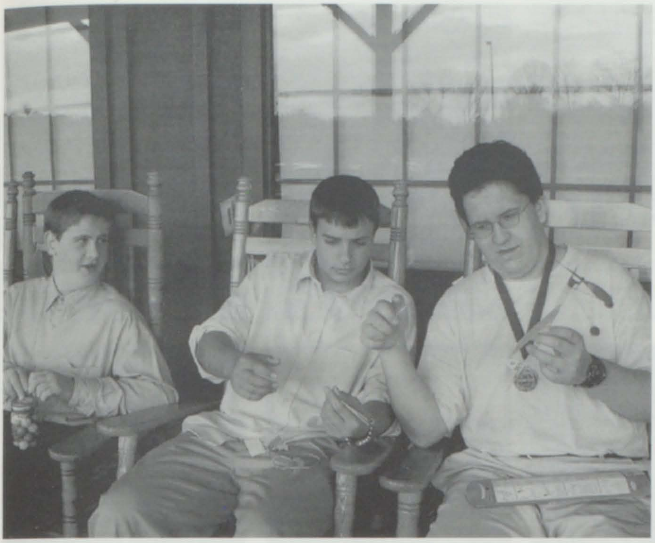
Matthew Richards, senior and FFA officer, is also a math student. He grins at having his picture snapped.

Varsity Cheerleaders are telling us something we already know — we are Number One!

"Now, let's see — what kind oh pose do we need for this picture? I know! I know! Cheek to cheek would be good, " says Keri Senn and Anna Miller. Both Keri and Anna are sophomores.



"Now the next piece goes where?" Chris Fuller and D.J. Stinson help Roy King put together a model airplane. They are having breakfast at Crackerbarrell after the 2002 South Regional Conference.

Okay people, you know the drill. Hands high and spread 'em! No misdemeanor here! There was no need for a search. They were just stretching so they could play basketball.

You never know what you can do until you Try
FFA

"You never know that you can dance and sing and play dress-up until you try," says Melissa Taylor and Megan Legg. Melissa and Megan are seniors.

The 2002-2003 varsity cheerleaders had an exciting year. Headed by their coach Mrs. Katherine Neis, they added five new cheerleaders to the squad making the total members eleven. They started their season with a private summer camp. At camp they learned a competition routine. They then practiced the routine from August until December.

In December the squad went to state competition in Hanceville. Although they didn't win they enjoyed competing with other hard-working squads. It was a memorable experience that they will not soon forget.

Coach Scott Quisenberry, Coach Randy Grant, and Coach Kenny Senn are on the sidelines at a football game. Coach John McCrory and Coach Charles Edwards who are on the sideline but cannot be seen, are also football coaches.

Homecoming Queen and Court

Brandy Virginia Mehaffey

Brandy Virginia Mehaffey, Homecoming Queen 2001, has attended Zion Chapel her entire school life. She is the daughter of Roy and Tammy Mehaffey who were her escorts during the Coronation Ceremony. During her senior year, Brandy worked over 20 hours each week but consistently maintained an A/B average. After high school, Brandy's plans included joining the Navy, going to college, and majoring in accounting.

HOMECO

The 2001 Homecoming Court included freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior attendants. Inessa Kay Wambles was the freshman attendant. Inessa has attended Zion Chapel since Kindergarten. She was a member of FBLA, SGA, and the girls' varsity basketball team. Anna Catherine Miller, sophomore attendant, began Kindergarten at Zion Chapel and has never left. She was a member of Junior Beta Club and Middle Level FBLA. Now she is a member of the senior level chapters of both clubs.

Her club memberships include FFA and SGA and are a member of both the volleyball and softball teams. Emily Sue Clements also began school at Zion Chapel during her Kindergarten year and has been enrolled at Zion Chapel since that time. She has been a member of FBLA. After high school, she would like to be a police detective. Emily was the junior attendant. The senior attendant was Jessica Danielle Flowers who is another life-long student at Zion Chapel. She is a member of FBLA, FFA, FCCLA, and SGA. She has been a member of the band, the girls' varsity basketball team, and the varsity cheerleader squad. Jessica was also Zion Chapel's Girls State representative.

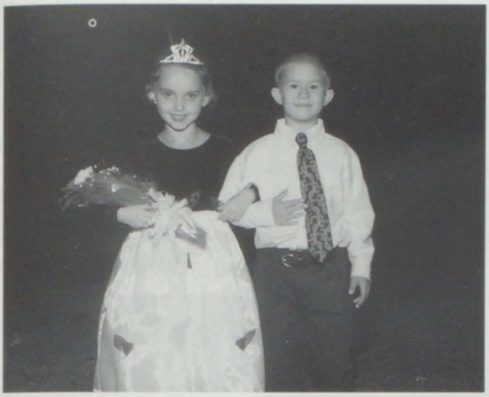
The members of the Homecoming Court are Sam Wambles, Inessa Wambles, Tanya Wambles, Roy Mehaffey, Brandy Mehaffey, Tammy Mehaffey, Jessica Flowers, Jerrell Flowers, Pam Flowers, Billy Clements, Emily Clements, Larry Miller, Anna Miller, and Terry Miller.



Ethan Charles Lott and Heather Brittany Brunson (below) are Little Mr. and Mrs. Elementary School. Ethan is the son of Carl and Renee Lott. Heather is the daughter of Terry and Sheryl Brunson.

Varsity Basketball

Sanders and Arnold lead varsity scoring with a combined total of 451.

Jon Sanders led the varsity team in scoring with 251 points. Brandon Arnold was second with 200 points. Billy McClain contributed 131 points and was third in scoring for the Rebels. Also contributing to the Rebel scoring were Luke Taylor, Austin Smith, Jeremy Sanders, and Jamey White. They were members of the B-team who moved up to varsity ball after the B-team season was over.

The Rebels played in 21 regular season games finishing with a record of 3-18.

Varsity Softball

The members of the girl's varsity softball team enjoyed the best season ever in the history of Zion Chapel softball. More games were won than ever before. In addition they lost some games with a very close score. Keri Hobbs, an eighth grader led the team in batting averages with a .374. She was followed by senior Megan Legg who batted .372. Next came junior Tracy Banks with .361 who was followed by senior Melissa Taylor and seventh graders Erica Lewis who each batted .333. Mr. Randy Grant and Mrs. Shasta Arnette were the coaches of the softball team.

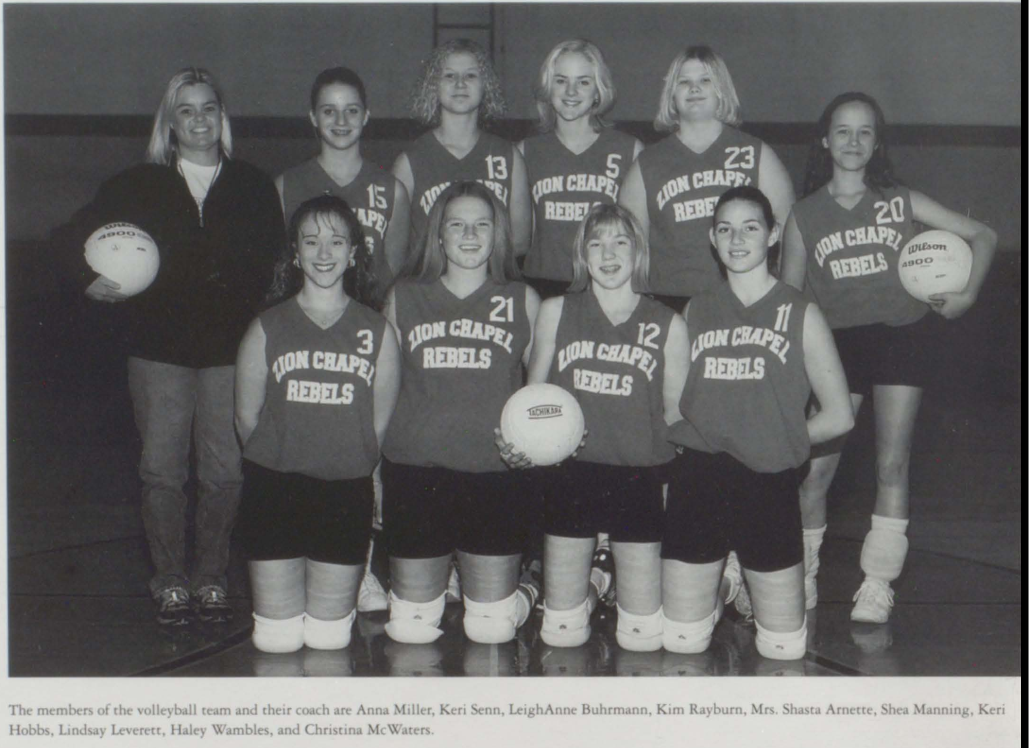
Varsity Volleyball

After a twenty-year gap Zion Chapel again had a volleyball team. The team's season record was 3 games won and 13 games lost.

Mrs. Shasta Arnette, coach, said, "These players had a lot to learn and they did work hard to learn all the basic skills. They had a lot of heart and dedication."

Zion Chapel was awarded a Class 1A Volleyball grant from the Alabama Athletic Association that purchased volleyballs and a ball cart. Zion Chapel was chosen for this grant after Mrs. Arnette wrote a letter to the state athletic association explaining why she thought Zion Chapel should be awarded this grant.



The members of the volleyball team and their coach are Anna Miller, Keri Senn, LeighAnne Buhrmann, Kim Rayburn, Mrs. Shasta Arnette, Shea Manning, Keri Hobbs, Lindsay Leverett, Haley Wambles, and Christina McWaters.

DAR and EHS Good Citizens

Every year the seniors at Elba High School vote for and elect one male and one female to that best represent the student body. This year's DAR/EHS Good Citizens are Katie Elizabeth Crowe and Wesley Gannon Kelley. Katie is the daughter of Dale and Nancy Crowe.She is the captain of the danceline, a member of Girl Scout Troop #300, and voted "friendliest" in the senior class by her peers. Wesley is the son of Eddie and Jana Kelley. He is president of the senior class, voted "most dependable" by the senior class, and is captain of the band. Congratulations Katie and Wesley for your dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Ashley Harrelson

Ashley,

I am so very thankful to God for giving you to me. You have grown up so fast and you have overcome so much in such a short period of your life. As I look back I will always cherish our times together. I have watched you grow from a baby into a beautiful young lady. God will always be with you no matter where you are, or what you become. God and I will always love you unconditionally forever. I will miss these times, but I will also look forward to making more and wonderful memories with you as we grow older together.

I love you,
Mother

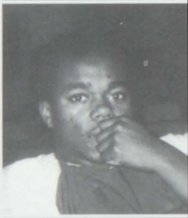
Peek -a-boo! I see you!!!

Yeh, you can take my picture as long as I get to miss class.



Maybe if I think hard enough, I'll grow a couple of inches.

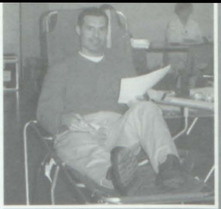
Somebody took my last Snak-Pak!!

Mr. Ellis! Get out of the picture!

Oh, baby, baby, how was I supposed to know...

What's that smell?

It's Bob Marley's Mini-me.



It's a bird! It's a plane! No - it's Superman, cleverly disguised as Coach Collins giving blood.

Wesley illustrates the mechanics of a yard stick.

The tradition continues: two cheerleaders make the injured list.

Bandos gone wild.

SCHOOL ZONE

As another year draws to a close, the Senior class writes the final chapter and closes the book, while the underclassmen merely turn the page. With memories that will last a lifetime, the graduates of Elba High join the ranks of alumni, look ahead to the future, and embrace the past. The students move ahead to another year and prepare to make memories of their own. As we reflect on the past, we cannot help but feel the century old pride of being associated with Elba High School. The Class of 2002 is not the first to roll the school, organize skip days, allow fellow classmates (Gavin) to sit in ketchup, and have reservations about venturing out into a new world. Our only wish for the students we leave behind is that they will carry on the traditions of Elba City Schools. One hundred years of excellence; one hundred years of fun.

God bless,
